SOURCE:

This is the Gray Fox. This is a meeting I, we went to of the Arizona Patriots on March 12, 1985. It started about ten minutes after seven and lasted til approximately 10:00 in Cottonwood. The meeting was at the Verde Village Medical Center. That's off of Highway 279 on the east side of Cottonwood. You take 279 to Western Avenue. You turn north on Western Avenue about a block and a half and then you will see the sign that says, uh, Village Professional Center. A Warren Carlton, I think it's C-a-r-l-t-o-n, he hosted the meeting and it appeared like that was his building and he was the, this is a Chiropractor's office and health food place. There was a Bob Hubner, H-u-b-n-e-r. He was kind of a co-host. He's from Phoenix. His work phone number is 954-8885. His home phone is 955-0284. The guest speaker was a Jack McLamb. That's M-c-L-a-m-b. He's the one that's got the, that little newsletter, Aid and Abet. He was a guest speaker. He is supposedly a Phoenix policeman. There was approximately 30, 38 people present at the meeting, including Ty Hardin, Judy Hardin, Harold Bullard, B-u-l-l-a-r-d, Ed Lovell, L-o-v-e-l-l, and myself.

Uh, the meeting consisted of a, uh, video tape and cassette tapes from recordings. What it was it's about this, uh, initial F as in Frank, middle name Tupper, T-u-p-p-e-r, last name Saussey, S-a-u-s-s-y. Supposedly he, uh, they got him for failure to file his income tax for '77, '78 and '79. So he went into court. Supposedly the judge refused him counsel. The judge said he didn't have any rights. So this Saussey decided he wasn't going to get a fair trial in there, so he tried to leave and the U. S. Marshals detained him and it become a big fight and supposedly they beat him up. His wife they call Freddie. Uh, she's kind of got like a French or European accent. They beat her up and put her in the hospital. And the two small children, they're boys, maybe 5 and 7 or something like that, the FBI and the Marshals beat them up. And the one cassette tape, they had the little boy, uh, with the tape recording on him and

At 7:00 p.m., on 4/18/85, [REDACTED] a reporter with Channel 12, an NBC affiliate in Phoenix, Arizona, telephone number [REDACTED] was contacted at his request. [REDACTED] advised that he had done a story on the afternoon of 4/18/85, at the request of WMQ TV, Chicago, which was the NBC affiliate in Chicago which story dealt with [REDACTED] and the Arizona Patriots. [REDACTED] advised that he had been called by WMQ TV who advised him that they were in possession of an FBI document that had been verified as authentic by the FBI. This document referred to a source providing information regarding the Navajo Army Depot. This "memo" indicated that [REDACTED] had an interest in the Depot and had asked a source for information as to arms shipments in and out of the depot, the number of security personnel, and the access of security personnel to bunkers during heavy snow storms. The memo also expressed a particular interest [REDACTED] in light anti-tank weapons and the interest of the Patriots in obtaining other weapons. [REDACTED] further stated that this "memo" also indicated that the Patriots were interested in stockpiling gold and silver and obtaining weapons through corruption of military personnel.

[REDACTED] indicated that the story he had taped in the afternoon would appear on Channel 12 and also in Chicago and possibly on the morning national news.

[REDACTED] was advised that the FBI could neither confirm nor deny any of the information he had related to the writer.

Arizona Patriots push 'call to arms' to thwart 'tyranny'

By FRED SMITH
The board room at the Arizona Patriots' headquarters in Phoenix is a place of quiet intensity. The room is filled with the sound of typewriters and the rustle of papers. The board members, a mix of men and women, are seated around a large conference table, their faces set in serious expressions. They are discussing the latest developments in the movement, the call to arms, the push to overthrow the current government and replace it with a new one. The room is dimly lit, with only a few lights on, creating a somber and clandestine atmosphere.

The Arizona Patriots are a group of men and women who believe that the current government is a tyranny and that it must be overthrown. They believe that the only way to achieve this is through a violent revolution. They have a long history of activism and have been involved in various protests and demonstrations. They are now calling for a "call to arms" and are urging their members to take up arms and fight against the government. They believe that the government is corrupt and that it is using force to maintain its power. They believe that the people have the right to overthrow a tyrannical government and that they are duty-bound to do so.

1970-71, when he undertook a multi-state speaking engagement on behalf of the John Birch Society, of which he was a member. During these speeches, wherein GUMAER would indicate his prior undercover activities and relationship with the Chicago Police Department, GUMAER also identified himself as an FBI informant working matters of a similar nature for the Bureau. These speeches were generally of an alarmist nature, intended to arouse the wrath of conservative America to the ever growing threat from "new left" and "Communist backed" movements in the United States. Considerable correspondence was received at FBIHQ, due to GUMAER'S purporting to be an FBI informant, in addition to his inflammatory rhetoric during these speeches.

In October 1973, a Washington Field Office confidential source advised that a third individual had described GUMAER as a right-wing extremist who was allegedly organizing right-wing airline pilots to fly "hit teams" around the United States to assassinate certain individuals, to include then Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. Investigation could not substantiate these allegations, but GUMAER, during an interview, did express a particular dislike for Kissinger due to his "pro-Communist activities and associates." It was ascertained, however, that GUMAER exhibited the profile of a white, right extremist who could be swept up in the philosophies espoused by the ARIZONA PATRIOTS.

Agency, a full domestic security/terrorism (DS/T) investigation was authorized 10/30/84 and has been extended to 10/25/85.

✓ Investigation into the activities of the Arizona
Patriots by the Phoenix Division indicates that the Arizona Patriots organization is an anti-tax, neo-Nazi, paramilitary organization funded by [REDACTED] in Prescott, Arizona. Arizona Patriots philosophy closely resembles that of the Aryan Nations; Posse Comitatus, and other right wing extremist groups to advocate armed revolution and the literal overthrow of the U.S. Government. Arizona Patriots members are urged to store large caches of arms, ammunition, explosives, food, and other items deemed necessary to be self-sufficient.
The actual size of Arizona Patriots followers is unknown;
however, some Arizona Patriots leaders have claimed more than 4,000 individuals are actual members or sympathizers which include current and retired members of law enforcement and military.

December 6, 1984

Dear Duck Club Members, Friends and Concerned Americans;

There is a saying that the Magna Carta was won at the point of a sword, The Revolutionary War was won at the point of a musket and the next problem we have will be won with Winchester, Remington and Colt.

Whatever be the case, it is helpful to know how to handle a firearm!

Whether you ever shoot one, or not is immaterial, you should know how to handle one safely for your protection and for the protection of others around you.

The next meeting of the Southern Arizona Duck Club will be at Carrows Restaurant, 1340 North Wilcox Rd., Tucson, Az., 85715. TIME 7:00 P.M. on Thursday, December 13, 1984. Please come and bring a friend!

The Program will be on GUN SAFETY. If enough people are interested, we may have this same program again and perhaps arrange a session on the firing range. Some of the old timers may remember a session we had at the Davis Mountain Firing Range about three years ago.

Please do not bring weapons, the instructors will have all they need to get the job done. If you have some odd ball caliber shells, it might be interesting to bring them, so people can see what certain calibers look like.

For the information of Phoenix, interviews of Multnomah County Posse Comitatus members conducted during the investigation of an alleged plot by those members to fire bomb the homes of Oregon State judges revealed that these members have been in contact with a Pastor SHELDON EMERY of EMERY's Ministries, Scottsdale, Arizona. According to one of the [redacted] was called on 4/6/85, requesting [redacted] advice, after the homes of two SPC members were searched in connection with the alleged plot. In addition, [redacted] received identity literature from Pastor EMERY and passed it out to other individuals. Minnesota officials agree to address loan foreclosures

Associated Press

MANKATO, Minn. — Farmers demanding an immediate moratorium on foreclosures took over a regional farm-loan office Tuesday and held it for seven hours until they were promised meetings with top state officials.

About 15 members of the farm-activist group Groundswell took over the Production Credit Association office at 7:30 a.m., chaining the doors shut. They later allowed Blue Earth County Sheriff LeRoy Weibold and PCA officials into the building for negotiations. The activists left the building at 2:20 p.m.

Two PCA employees remained in the office to watch over records during the siege and said they were free to leave at all times.

Weibold said no charges would be filed. Groundswell attorney Steve Rowley said the agreement not to file charges resulted from the negotiations between protesters and law-enforcement officials.

The protesters initially said they would remain in the building until Gov. Rudy Perpich declared an immediate, blanket moratorium on farm-mortgage foreclosures.

"We've got people being forced off the land, and we want to make sure that the politicians of this state will be forced to follow through with some of those promises they may not have held up to," Groundswell protester Jerry Boler of Truman said after the protest.

"There's another (legislative) session coming up about 30 days after the holidays, and we'd like this crisis and this pressure on all these farmers relieved right here, before the holidays."

John Truwe, chief executive officer of Farm Credit Services in Mankato, acted as PCA spokesman. Production Credit Associations, which issue agricultural loans only, are private, farmer-owned cooperatives regulated by the Farm Credit Administration in Washington, D.C.

"We're both on the same side," Truwe said. "We recognize that there are problems in agriculture, and this is our only business, so their problems and ours mirror each other. We want to be sure that we understand their frustration and they understand ours."

Gerry Nelson, Perpich's press secretary, said the protesters were to meet with state Attorney General Hubert H. Humphrey III and state Agriculture Commissioner Jim Nichols today in Mankato.

In addition, Nelson said, the governor's office agreed to meet with Rowley and a "small group" of Groundswell members in the next two weeks. No date was set.

"In general, he's (Perpich) going to stick with the voluntary mediation program," Nelson said. "The governor met with Groundswell people as recently as last Thursday in Marshall. As far as declaring a moratorium, no, he's not going to. He wants to give the voluntary program a chance to work."

Perpich and Humphrey had refused to meet with the protesters while they were in the PCA office.

Perpich has endorsed a 90-day voluntary moratorium by five major lending institutions on farmland mortgage foreclosures in the state. Officials of the Farm Credit System, Minnesota Bankers Association,

The lenders said they would offer 90 days of grace to farm borrowers who took part in an mediation or counseling program aimed at working out their financial problems.

[REDACTED] has advised AP leaders frequently discuss plans of insurrection and revolution under the protective umbrella of religion, especially, under the "identity" religious movement. AP members frequently meet with members of numerous other right wing groups, both in and out of the State of Arizona. Publically, most AP leaders and members claim they are non-violent and will try to correct the "ills of the nation" through legal means. However, once in private, AP members and leaders openly discuss assassinations, bombings, robberies and revolution.

[REDACTED] advised AP leaders and members are nearly always armed and he believes they should be considered very dangerous. This Source has personally [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Source reports most AP members feel the system is "out to get them" so they feel they should be prepared to "get the system first".

[REDACTED] advised AP members have claimed they have hardcore members and sympathizers within the Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS), nearly every sheriff's office in the State, and in most police departments throughout the State of Arizona. AP leaders claim they have access to NCIC and other computer networks because of their contacts in law enforcement. They also claim many active and retired military personnel and they proudly point to [REDACTED]

AP leaders also claim they have members in phone companies and financial institutions throughout the State of Arizona who will obtain records and information for them. This

ARIZONA PATRIOTS;

Source reported that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] AP leaders have also claimed many sympathizers and members are local or national politicians.

b2 [REDACTED] has associated with many hardcore AP leaders b7D and members, and as such believes many of the members have b6 apparently reached such a point of frustration, that the b7C only path that they can see for the near future is one of violence and insurrection. Although many AP leaders are calling for non-violence at the present time, [REDACTED] there will soon be a charismatic personality emerging in the Patriot movement nationwide who will unite all Patriots. Only then, do these members believe an offensive action against the system will be effective. However, [REDACTED] members who are younger and more aggressive, and who want to have action now. Source believes these young Patriots will not wait for national unity, and will initiate bombings and periodic gorilla type warfare in the near future.

Because many of the AP members have gone underground to avoid detection by law enforcement personnel, it is impossible to estimate their current strength. However, all of the above Sources concur that members of the AP and similar right wing organizations should be considered armed and dangerous.
